THE PLACE: Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico

Sandwiched between the Atlantic Ocean and the Caribbean Sea, Puerto Rico is an aquatic playground. Home to nearly 300 beaches, couples have the option of snorkelling through the beautiful reefs, surfing the waves or scuba diving in the depths. Thrill-seekers should also explore Toro Verde, which boasts the second largest zip-line trail in the world (at 4,745 feet long). For the true daredevils, try "The Beast" where you zip-line horizontally like Superman 843 feet above the verdant valley floor. For the best ocean view, book a room at the luxurious Dorado Beach, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve, where every room faces the beach. Set on 1,400 acres, surrounded by a lush forest (embedded with an 11-mile hiking trail) and with a secluded beach at your fingertips, this tropical paradise is like heaven on earth. —Roseanne Dela Rosa
